Other Ceremonies

Civil Weddings are conducted by the Deputy Mayor at the Town Hall. Religious services (Greek Orthodox) are held at the resort's chapel of "Virgin Mary", that can be used as a backdrop for informal weddings too. A local priest performs the ceremony. Special permission is needed for the service to be performed outdoors. One of you must be Greek Orthodox and both must be baptized Christians. The ceremony is performed in Greek. Christenings can be organized as well.

The AgrecoFarms

Imagine a fairytale setting in a traditional village estate perched on a hillside overlooking the Cretan sea. The AgrecoFarms, owned by the N.Daskalantonakis-Grecotel group, is just a few kilometers away from the resort. At the chapel of "St. Nicholas" the service and the outdoors reception may be held, in a traditional and with rustic details way.

Note: the cost of organizing official weddings (paperwork, permissions, ceremonies etc.) is not included in the resort wedding packages.*
